

Dimensions:

width: 40 cm
height 94 cm
closed barrier: extension 42 cm
extended barrier: extension 350 cm assembly weight: approx. 6.8 kg

Description

Barrier entirely made of plastic, which enables various uses, such as a physical isolation barrier, a flag, a delimiter, among other possibilities. Its pantographic feature results in small volume to be kept or stored, and an excellent extent in use. For indoor use. It has fittings on the sides, which allow the connection of several barrier units to each other.

Application

Isolation and identification of areas of small or large lengths, in indoor environments, very often utilized in isolation of areas for maintenance, isolation of areas for labor safety.

Differentials:

Stainless material (100% plastic). Side rods in injected material of sufficient weight to maintain the stability of the assembly in use. It is already shipped with a set of wheels, which may or may not be utilized, according to the user's needs.

