

Weight: 4.1 kg

Description

High-density polyethylene easel, in different colors, with information and pictograms for signaling and temporary identification of areas with people and vehicle flow (approximate weight of the set - 4.1kg)

Application

Signage and temporary demarcation of areas where there is a flow of people, vehicles and other environments, generally used with information and pictograms such as men working, keep their distance, danger - keep away, among others. Its imposing dimensions allow its efficient use in any type of environment.

Differentials

Easel 100% made of plastic material, which allows its use in daily contact with water and other weather.

It has suggested personalization models, but allows the placement of any information in its face area, as well as the adhesive reflective adhesive exactly according to the user's needs and can be molded in several different colors (unpainted, the plastic material on the requested color).

